Business Arising from the Minutes

Agenda Items:

Community Matters

Melanie Law

1. Upkeep of the main road (Bandulla Street); would it be possible to get the weeds and grasses cut and then sprayed and some tar seal to prevent further weeds growing through the road.
2. Free Camping campground;
 - 2.1 Is there any capacity for an upgrade to the amenities block.
 - 2.2 are there any by-laws that govern how long people are able to stay in free camping campsite?
And,
 - 2.3 is there any regulation with regards to having dogs a) number of dogs, and b) whether they need to be restrained or able to run freely around the campground.

Stuart Neal

3. Signage for caravan visitors (Rules and regulations for the primitive campsite)
4. Merrygoen Creek – Yarrow Road causeway. In case of floods, can the work go ahead to clear the blockage both sides of the causeway. In the event if the Forest Road bridge being damaged in floods, there is no other feasible exit from town.
5. Refurbishment of the Mechanics Hall – kitchen.
6. New tree surrounds (3) on east side of town near the cheese shop, the ones there are only star pickets and are dangerous.
7. New speed signs on Forest Road. Suggested 80kph sign at Dalmallee Rd as there have been complaints from residents in Manus Drive about near misses when exiting onto Forest Road. Plus, a reduction to 80kph past the Coolabah Estate for the same reason.
